

Cosgriff House by Christopher Polly Architect - © Brett Boardman Photography

18. Christopher Polly Architect

Christopher Polly's eponymous firm specializes in residential work, but has also worked in boutique retail, restaurant, and workplace projects. Prior to founding his own practice, Polly worked at Candelepas Associates and other firms. Published internationally, the award-winning practice aims for inventive and well-crafted spaces. Projects include contemporary extensions to existing homes that create bold spaces while respecting surroundings and existing contexts.

25 best architecture firms in Sydney

A look at Australian architecture and design studios: 25 practices building Sydney and beyond