BOXED IN

With the help of BoConcept Sydney, we showed our Facebook friends how to make the most of small spaces. Styling by @scandinavianhomes

SUSPENDED LIVING

Our followers loved the awe-inspiring Goulding Summerhouse by Scott Tallon Walker Architects in Ireland. Originally designed for Sir Basil Goulding, the home featured in Karen McCartney's Superhouse exhibition at the Museum of Sydney. Photography by Richard Powers.

FINE LINES

We were so inspired by this Yarraville, Melbourne, kitchen by Nic Owen Architects that we just had to share it on our Pinterest page. We love the sneaky pigeonhole shelf below the counter — perfect for storing cookbooks. Photography by Christine Francis.

One of our most popular posts yet, 'Grammers couldn't get enough of the Haines House by Christopher Polly Architect. Located in Sydney's Inner West, you could be easily mistaken for thinking this little house is perched in a leafy, remote oasis. Photography by Brett Boardman.
